

I'll Use My Wings

My ship has lost its way
So I need to fly away
To a place that has not gone astray

I could soar to southern seas
Spin down slides, enjoy the breeze
Or do I fly west to help technology

Whatever I choose there's a cost
To my choice
So I must plan
What is best for my life
The option that is next
To the best
Is the bounty I must lose

I'll use my wings
Spread them far and sing
Sing out western seas
Would work just fine for me

If I fly west
I can't fly south
I can't do both, I must choose
What's best for growth

I'll use my wings
To choose the ship with steam
I won't have water slides
But I'll be free to sing

Opportunity cost
It is what I lost
By choosing to fly west
It is the south I lost

I have two opportunities
My choice is my destiny
The other is my opportunity cost

On southern slides I have lost

But in the west I'm captain of my destiny
I'll use my wings...
