

Wheat Bread, Fruit or Cheese

Megan Piphus Peace

Verse 1

SCARCITY CAT

It's lunchtime

(Oh yea!)

Let's go through these aisles!

(Ah yea!)

(Cat scream)

A pair of rats are hungry

And want some food to eat (we do!)

They need to buy their groceries

To make a tasty treat (yum, yum!)

The rats run through the aisles (wild!)

And pick all that makes them smile (that's nice!)

The rats shop for a while (all night!)

And end up with a giant pile (that's right!)

The rats seem to want everything

That their hands can reach (we do!)

Apples, bread and pudding

Carrots, jam and cheese (yum, yum!)

They see, they want, they grab (fast!)

But how much can they have
Their wants are jumbo stacks
And their cash is a little stash (so sad)

They want everything that they see
Their wants are as endless as the sea
They want so much more than they need
The rats need to leave with just one thing to eat

Chorus

MEGAN & SCARCITY CAT
Orange, cookies, chips and rice
Would all be nice
But choosing all that meets your eyes
Is too much for your appetite

The store is filled with tasty
Meals and sweets
And with its plenty
It must serve so many
The rats are very hungry
They must choose only their needs

MEGAN
The rats don't have enough money
To buy everything that they see
Rats, pick your options wisely
Narrow down to three

SCARCITY CAT

You can pick from these

Wheat bread, fruit or cheese

Pick one food to eat

Just one lunch is all you need

The honey wheat looks scrumptious

And freshly baked for me

But fruit is so delicious

Healthy, light and free

RAT 2

Us, rats, we love our cheese

But we really want all three

Wheat bread, fruit and cheese

We want them all between our teeth!

SCARCITY CAT

They want everything that they see

Their wants are as endless as the sea

They want so much more than they need

The rats need to leave with just one thing to eat

Chorus 2

MEGAN & SCARCITY CAT

Wheat bread, fresh fruit or cheese

Only one is what you need
Choosing all that meets your eyes
Is too much for your appetite

The store is filled with tasty
Meals and sweets
And with its plenty
It must serve so many
The rats are very hungry
They must choose only their needs

Bridge

MEGAN & SCARCITY CAT

So what will it be?

RATS

We want cheese

MEGAN & SCARCITY CAT

Is that what you need?

RATS

Guaranteed!

MEGAN & SCARCITY CAT

What is the cost?

RATS

It cost two bucks!

MEGAN & SCARCITY CAT

What is the cost?!

RATS

We said two bucks!

SCARCITY CAT (x2)

The cheese costs more than money

It costs the next best thing

The fruit was your second option

So the cost is what you lost

MEGAN & SCARCITY CAT

Wheat bread, fresh fruit or cheese

Only one is what you need

Choosing all that meets your eyes

Is too much for your appetite

The grocery store is filled with tasty

Meals and sweets

And with its plenty

It must serve so many

The rats are very hungry

They must choose only their needs
